

BRENT LOEFKE - Director

Creativity. The single attribute that best defines award-winning director Brent Loeffke's work is his enormous creativity.

Brent possesses the natural ability to capture remarkable images on film and video. His strong cinematic eye together with his ability to infuse any program with extraordinary quality has garnered huge success for numerous clients. His diverse experience includes television, feature film, and commercials.

Brent's years in Hollywood make him a consummate professional who can take any assignment from concept to final edit. Loeffke has a vast understanding of all aspects of production. He draws out top-notch performances from his talent and can make the most difficult project look effortless while keeping the atmosphere on a set light and easygoing.

Actors, producers, writers, and clients truly enjoy the experience of working with him.

Some of his over 100 clients have included: Kodak, Fox, America Online, Time-Warner, DirectTV, Toyota, Volkswagen, Dodge, Universal, Acura, Nissan, ABC, Little Caesar's Pizza, Sketchers, Paramount, Scripts, Verizon, Western Digital, Disney, Fireman's Fund, General Mills, Sharp, Scripts, Hitachi and AT&T.

Brent's talents have been recognized with numerous awards, including: Two Clios, an ADDY for best of show, Cannes Golden Lions, London Globals and numerous festivals for his work in commercials, MTV –Best International Music Video, Best country music video, Gold awards from New York, Chicago, Houston, LA, London and Cannes film festivals, and numerous Telly's for both short and long form projects.